

Cascade Clamps

Cascade Clamp - Cascade Manufacturing Company was established in Portland, Oregon in 1943. They started out as a small machine shop initially employing 4 people. Sales for their first year of operation amounted to about $60,000. The very first recorded sales revenues involved the machining and assembly of stainless-steel valves, pipe fittings and different parts. Throughout five years of operation, the business had expanded to 40 workers and their yearly sales volume had risen to three hundred thirty thousand dollars. Nowadays, Cascade is amongst the top global makers in the material handling trade.

Production and design of the company's original hydraulic cylinder paved the way in Cascade's aggressive pursuit of new business opportunities. Over the past 60 years, the material handling trade has grown into a very advanced area and Cascade has proudly played a part in this improvement. Cascade at present continues to develop as the best provider of forklift accessories and various related products. The business feels assured in their potential to continue to lead the way in the business by understanding customer's needs in the future and remaining competitive within the international market.

Through the nineteen fifties, Cascade started to manufacture, design, and promote its hydraulic attachments. A brand new facility was built in the year 1956, to be able to house all the plant offices and operations in Portland, Oregon, which remains to be the company's present head office. After fifteen years of business, total workers reached 180 workers and sales had reached practically 2.3 million dollars.

A second manufacturing plant was built in the year 1959 in Springfield, Concord. The year 1960 marked Cascade's initial move into the global world of the material handling industry as the business established interest in Australia, the Netherlands and England.

In 1964, the business changed its name to the Cascade Corporation. Afterward in the year 1965, the company went public with a preliminary offering of 200,000 shares of common stock. Ever since then the company has expanded its manufacturing amenities within the continental US to the areas Warner Robins Georgia to go along with its already present plants in Portland, Oregon and Springfield, Concord. Cascade merchandise are fabricated internationally due to a lot of subsidiary operations. In the year 1944, a brand new plant was accomplished in Almere, the Netherlands which is Cascade's European control center. This plant is built to be the ultimate customer service centre.

Continuing to develop, Cascade expanded their product offering further in the year 1996 and the year 1997 with the remarkable acquisition of five corporations, including the worldwide leader in forks, the Kenhar Corporation.
